MIDDLEBURG.

Opposition to Goebel has about vanquished, and the Louisville Dispatch caused it.

Michell Taylor will move his heading mill to Rolling Fork, where he has bought a quantity of timber.

Beatrice, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zach Deik, is very low with summer complaint and stomach trouble.

The next 5th Sunday meeting will probably be held at Valley Oak Baptist church, near Mintonville, this county.

It seems to us it is about time some good democrat was being named for the Legislature. Casey and Russell is a big territory to canvass in two months.

J. W. McWhorter, Jr., and W. T. Miller took much pains to show the "worse turnout" at the Liberty fair, but they came out second best. Their ordinary daily appearance, without any disguise, ought to have given them the premium.

Thieves entered Robert Cowan's house when he was away last week and stole a quantity of flour and bacon. The scamps left the doors and yardgate open and hogs got in and did additional damage, by breaking jars, cooking vessels, &c.

McDowell Jones killed a blue crane on Indian creek a few days ago that measured six feet from tip to tip, and was four feet 8 inches high. It was on the wing when fired upon and Mr. Jones says it made as much noise as a railroad wreck when it struck the ground.

From 25 to 30 wagons loaded with staves, timber and shingles pass through town daily on their way to McKinney for shipment to Cincinnati and other points. William Holden has bought a large tract of timber of the Coulter heirs on Indian creek and will move a saw mill to it as soon as he can purchase one.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albright, of Brodhead, came down to attend the Haney-Coulter wedding last week. They returned home Saturday. Dr. L. J. Godby is at home from Alma, Tenn., where he went to take Dr. Haney's place while that gentleman was here marrying. The doctor says Alma is a tough place.

T. S. B.

There are about 120 in attendance at Middleburg Academy.

Elder J. Q. Montgomery preached at the Christian church Sunday and the pulpit was filled Sunday night by Bro. Hardin Hatter.

The outlook for corn is far more promising than it was a few weeks ago. At any rate our people are not going to starve for the want of corn bread.

Now is the opportune time to name a candidate for representative and the party would do honor to itself besides electing their man if they would only name either William or Bryant Stone, of Jamestown. Now or never.

Many democrats, who were caught napping with the Louisville Dispatch, are naturally wondering what organ next to trust and at the same time hurling defiance at the so-called democratic sheet, which betrayed the party at the 'leventh hour. Urey Woodson's Owensboro Twice-a-Week Messenger is about the best campaign paper they can get. This paper they can get from now until the election of Mr. Goebel for a quarter.

George McAninch received a telegram early Monday morning from Bloomington, Ill., conveying the sad intelligence of the death of his son, Durham. Durham was a brakeman on a train between Bloomington & St. Louis and he met an accident Sunday evening, which proved fatal. The remains were shipped home for burial and will be interred today, (Wednesday), in Green River cemetery. Deceased was about 21 years of age and single.

Maj. Dickson, of Hogsett Military Academy, visited Fred Durham last week. Joe Robinson, a young lawyer of Campbellsville, visited Messrs. Ogg and Moore Tuesday. E. C. Walton, the popular L. J. man, was in our little city last week on route home from the fair. Fred Gillette and Edgar Miller were in Cincinnati Sunday seeing the sights. Owen and Michael Bush returned to their home in Indianapolis Sunday. M. Taylor and son, Jason, left Monday for Grandin, N. D. They will be absent about four weeks. Albert Keeney accompanied them, but will not return.

The rads are almost tickled to death over the split in the democracy and, of course, calling Brown and his coterie all kinds of good names. The fact is they only see the split in the ranks of the enemy and fail to see the breach in the ranks of their own party. Of course we mourn (?) the loss of Young John, but every vote he polls is a half vote for Goebel, as the rads will admit that Taylor would have received at least two-thirds of the bolting element had they no ticket. Brown is an aid to democracy and will prove a boomerang with the rads.

J. E. Miles, the Frankfort miller, has assigned, with liabilities $100,000 and assets nearly that amount.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

REPORT OF THE MEETING AT CRAB ORCHARD.

The following committees were appointed by Chairman L. R. Hughes: Committee on Entertainment: Misses Essie Burch, Hallie Edmiston and Annie McKinney, W. F. White, D. C. King.

Committee on Resolutions: Misses Annie McKinney, Sallie McWorter and Kate Bogle, H. H. Young, M. E. Wheelodon.

Committee on Programme: Misses Kate Blain and Lou Hicks, J. F. Edmiston, Mrs. Mary J. Cochran, Prof. J. W. Withers.

At the opening Tuesday, Mrs. J. F. Hoidam presided at the organ and Prof. J. W. Withers conducted the devotional exercises. Prof. Withers continued the discussion commenced yesterday and argued that the mind of a child naturally grows right and loves knowledge. He impressed upon the teachers the dangerous results of an erroneous study of definitions. Pupils must have the general idea of the term and distinguish it from all others. It is the duty of the teacher to lead the pupil to the general idea and then by proper questions to impress it upon him.

At the opening of the afternoon session, Miss Hallie Edmiston led the music. Primary reading was introduced by N. W. Hughes, followed in discussion by Prof. Withers. The former emphasized the importance of knowing the child's disposition and the latter said that the step between the known and the unknown should be as short as possible. Miss Essie Burch discussed Intermediate Reading in a manner, which showed her capability of teaching it. Prof. Withers advised that in addition to the regular text, supplementary reading be furnished at the teacher's expense.

Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt introduced the subject of spelling and discussed it in his characteristically eloquent way. He promised to discuss the "Old Blue Back Speller" with Judge T. Z. Morrow at a later date and the teachers are looking forward to it with pleasant anticipations.

H. S. Young, Mrs. Bettie Green and Prof. Davis each showed by their remarks that, although working by different methods, they have been successful in teaching spelling. Miss Arthusa Cloyd asked the question, "Are rules beneficial in teaching spelling?" In discussing Advanced Reading, Misses Florence Bibb and Annie McKinney presented some good thoughts in awakening interest. Several questions were asked by Young, Pruitt, Miss McKinney and satisfactorily answered by conductor.

Wednesday morning's session began with music, Miss Nora Phillips presiding at the organ, and devotional exercises by Prof. Withers. On Language Lessons, Misses Arthusa Cloyd and Anna Gooch advanced some practical thoughts, followed by that veteran teacher, Prof. M. J. Brough, who impressed the idea that you must teach the child good language by using it yourself and having him do so. Prof. Withers said that a child should be taught language in all of his school duties by proper questioning and hedging. Profs. Davis and Pruitt gave their plans as used in the school room. Misses Annie Dunn and Nora Phillips introduced Technical Grammar, followed in the discussion by Rev. Gashwiler and Prof. Withers. The sentence "To kill a man is wrong" was placed on the board and Conductor Withers decided that the infinitive "to kill" has no case while the teachers were divided on the question, Misses Kate Blain, Annie Dunn and Messrs. Gashwiler, Baugh, Davis, Martin and Pruitt each contributing to the interesting discussion.

Miss Myrtle Hughes presided at the organ at the opening in the afternoon. Honorary members were named as follows: Rev. J. S. Gashwiler, Prof. W. C. Grinstead and J. F. Roberts. W. R. Swearingen, who never fails to say something good, introduced Psychology.

D. C. King showed that he is able to apply psychological knowledge and common sense in his teaching and Prof. Davis emphasized the imperative need of knowing a child's mind in order to teach him or discipline him. Miss Sallie Carter and Messrs. F. F. Bobbitt and Gashwiler made valuable suggestions and Prof. Grinstead urged the careful study of a certain text book on the subject, which was further elucidated by Conductor Withers. Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt took up the remainder of the session in an exhaustive discussion of Psychology.

The open session at the Christian church Wednesday night was largely attended and apparently much enjoyed by the audience. It began with music by the orchestra, followed by a capital address by Prof. J. W. Withers; music by the choir; solo by Miss Lillie Peyton; declamation by M. E. Pruitt; quartette, Misses Edmiston and Messrs. Lewis and Pruitt; select reading, Miss Essie Burch and solo by Miss James. Miss Annie McKinney read the "Institute Notes," which contained many good things and happy hits.

Thursday's session opened with music as usual, Miss Kate Blain organist. Geography was discussed by G. W. Curtis, Misses Sallie Carter, Nora Phillips and Kate Blain and M. J. Brough and M. E. Pruitt, the conductor continuing it by impressing the importance of studying it in connection with history. After recess the music was led by Miss Kate Bogle organist, when Geography was resumed by Mrs. Bettie Green and Profs. Davis, Brough, Swearingen and Withers. Miss Kate Bogle introduced History in a very capable manner. E. L. Gooch excused himself, preferring to hear more experienced teachers. In answer to a question by Miss Annie McKinney, the conductor showed that it was best in teaching history to outline the work and divide and sub-divide it. Miss Minnie Eubanks asked whether Kentucky or U. S. History should be taught first and the conductor said the latter should be. Messrs. Pruitt, McWilliams and Brough further elucidated the subject.

At the afternoon session, Miss Hallie Edmiston was organist. Penmanship was discussed by Mrs. Cochran and the conductor and Arithmetic by W. T. White, M. E. Wheelodon and the conductor. Judge T. Z. Morrow, who had once been a teacher, addressed the institute and made it proud that so distinguished a citizen had honored it.

The Institute closes this morning, when all the teachers will carry away pleasant recollections of Crab Orchard, where they spent a most profitable week.

In a vision of 1850, I saw the American flag bearing the inscription "Woman's Rights." Women were at the head of the army and navy and held the courts of the country. Acting as jurors, their sons were never convicted of crime. I saw a race of pigmies, the men being three feet high, weighing 30 pounds and I was told that they were the descendants of the cigarette smokers of 1899. Young ladies watch your beaux.

In considering the many advantages to be derived from the extension of the Southern railway, we should not lose sight of the fact that Boyle county farmers get 3 cts. more for their wheat than we do, on account of competing roads. Now we ship about 200,000 bushels of wheat and we would save $6,000 annually on that item alone. We would save as much or more on hemp, tobacco and live stock, which would make a saving of $25,000 annually to the farmer, to say nothing of the increase in the value of his land. The town people would be equally benefited in saving on freight rates on coal, merchandise, etc. Let us go to work and raise money for the right of way and our people will have made a paying investment.

STANFORD, KY. - AUG. 11, 1899

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor, WILLIAM GOEBEL.
For Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM.
For Attorney General, R. J. BRECKINRIDGE.
For Auditor, GUS G. COULTER.
For Treasurer, S. W. HAGER.
For Secretary of State, C. BRECK HILL.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, HARRY MCCHESENEY.
For Commissioner of Agriculture, ION B. NALL.
For Railroad Commissioner, C. C. MCCORD.
For Representative, M. F. NORTH.

THE campaign was opened at a dozen or more places Monday by orators who spoke eloquently and logically for the democratic ticket. The speech of Congressman Evan E. Settle at Frankfort, was perhaps the most elaborate and has produced the most favorable comment since he was a warm partisan of Gen. Hardin before the convention. He staid with the general all through as he had in two other bitter races before, and says he saw nothing in the last convention that had not been practiced before innumerable times in the conventions of all parties, not only in this State but in others. But for the corporations, which are fighting our nominee more bitterly than they have ever fought a democrat in the State, there would be no bolters' movement. He went for Brown fore and aft and paid his respects to "poor old Maj. Johnston" in a way that sentle individual must despise, claiming that Billy Breckinridge had made him believe that he was a power in Kentucky politics. He also went for the Morning Distress, the popular name for the Louisville Dispatch, and complimented the Courier Journal as the only reliable and trustworthy metropolitan paper in the State. The story that the Confederates would not support Mr. Goebel, is an insult to their manhood. There are a few following in the steps of Longstreet, Mahone and Billy Breckinridge, but they are widely scattered. In conclusion he paid a high tribute to the public and private life of Senator Goebel, whom every democrat should love for the enemies he has made and for his splendid fight for the people against the growing encroachment of their rights by the corporations. At Richmond Congressman G. G. Gilbert made a strong plea for the ticket and for democrats to lay aside all personal matters and rally to the redemption of the State from republican rule. It was a good beginning of a canvass that promises to be the warmest in the history of the State and which promises to redound to democratic success.

JOHN YOUNG BROWN furnished the republicans most of their ammunition for their fight against Gen. Hardin in 1895. He is a bitter personal enemy of the general and would do any thing he could against him but stand up and fight him like a man. He advised that Goebel make the Tate defalcation, when Hardin happened to be attorney general, the battle cry against him and sought to procure evidence that he profited by it. His malignity knows no bounds and his so-called demeracy goes glimmering when he can make a point against a democratic enemy with the republicans. Hardin's supporters know Brown's attitude towards their favorite and he will get precious few votes from them and precious few from any other source when it is generally known that the L. & N. is using him as a tool to elect the republican nominee for governor.

A CLUB of ladies at Columbus, O., have resolved that they will eschew the kissing habit both with themselves and the members of the masculine persuasion. To a man who has recently been over most of the Buckeye State, the resolution seems to be in the nature of supererogation. There may be women in Ohio that might tempt a man to osculation, but in four days' travel we didn't see one. The lips of the average Ohio woman do not seem to have been constructed for kissing purposes.

"GOEBEL'S BEER." Large signs bearing these words met our eye on every side at Detroit the other day. It is said to be a very excellent brand, even better than Pabst, but this of course is hearsay and not legal evidence. The beer man is no relative of our Billy, we will say for the benefit of the prohibitionists. Our Billy is engaged entirely at present in making votes and he seems to be meeting with that decided success which has always crowned the efforts of his life.

ALTEGELD, the Illinois anarchist, who was so severely "crushed" when he ran as a bolter for mayor of Chicago against Harrison, says that Goebel ought to be crushed. Misery loves company, but this arch fiend of democracy will not have Mr. Goebel for a companion.

TREASURER LONG has ignored the law and Gov. Bradley and arranged with the banks to pay drafts drawn by his son. The law expressly says that he shall not leave without the approval of the governor and that no assistant shall be recognized except on the endorsement of the governor. Long wants to neglect the business, for which the State pays him, to run the republican campaign, but the governor, who is trying to do his duty as God gives him light to see that duty, very naturally objects that he shall do so at the expense of the State, when the law is expressly to the contrary. Gov. Bradley's action in the matter is commended by right thinking men of both parties and further adds to his claim for popular approval.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL has no more doubt that Goebel will be elected than that the sun shines. The bolters will only serve to make true democrats the more determined. The whole aim of the bolt from the beginning has been the defeat of the State and National democratic tickets and the continuation in the State and nation of republican procorruption rule. Even the adroit management of the corporation agents has failed to conceal this and the eyes of democrats are becoming thoroughly opened to the situation.

THE decision of the republicans to open their campaign at London, one of their strongest strongholds, would indicate that they are not sure of anything this time. Taking the whole crew of candidates there to preach republican doctrine seems like carrying coals to New Castle, but the committee knows its business, doubtless, and wants to feel one day at least that the friends of democrats are becoming thoroughly opened to the situation.

THE Louisville Post and other republican sheets are trying to create the impression that Senator Blackburn is a very sick man and will be unable to fill his appointment Saturday or any for some time. The Senator has been a little sick, but is all right now and the lie about his severe illness is for a purpose.

THE Daily Covington Commonwealth, which declined to support the democratic ticket, has suspended. Had it remained true to democracy it would not have died, but it fell from grace and dying leaves few to mourn its end.

THE innocent Louisville Times asks why did Brown change his mind after he stated that he would stump the state for Goebel? That's easy. The L. & N.'s offer was too tempting for a man of his calibre.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Judge Emery Whitaker, of Mayesville, is dead.

Former Gov. W. Y. Atkinson, of Georgia, is dead, after an illness of 10 days.

Hon. James A. McKenzie announces that he will support Goebel and the whole ticket.

Hon. W. J. Bryan will spend 10 days in Kentucky speaking for the democratic ticket.

Hogjaw Taylor was first a democrat, then a populist and finally a republican. "To h—l with turncoats."

Judge R. J. Breckinridge and Congressman Settle will speak at Bowling Green tomorrow afternoon.

Democrats of Fulton have arranged to give a big barbecue on the 15th, the day on which Goebel and Blackburn speak there.

Dr. C. J. Walton, who was State Senator, was unanimously nominated by the republicans for representative from Hart.

Samuel S. Shepard, of Georgetown, has resigned as chief clerk in register of land office to become secretary of the republican campaign committee.

The Bowling Green bolters have canceled the call for a convention Saturday. There will be no bolters there after Settle and Breckinridge speak that afternoon.

Ex-Lieut. E. Ingram was elected by the magistrates of Bell county, on the first ballot for county judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge James Farmer Neal.

The Boyle county democrats will hold a convention on the 21st to nominate a candidate for circuit clerk to fill the vacancy. W. Graham Price has announced for the office.

The republican candidates and campaign committee have decided to open their campaign at London Aug. 22 by an all-day rally of mountain republicans, with all the republican candidates on hand, loaded with speeches.

Hon. James Garnett, Jr., of Adair, whom the bolters have been talking about naming for attorney general, publishes a letter saying that his name is being used by the squealers without his knowledge or consent, and that as he has always done, he will support the regular nominees this year. Garnett was chairman of the Frankfort convention that nominated McCord.

Clarence E. Woods says in the Richmond Climax: To the writer this political purist, W. H. Sweeney, of Marion, albeit an old friend of the editor, made this statement on the corner of Fifth and Jefferson, Louisville, mark the words: "I did not care for the chairmanship. I know by being defeated I lost the prestige of the place, but I also escaped the odium attached to it, for I would have been expected to do as Redwine did, and I would have done as he did."

C. M. Randall, of London, has been appointed general deputy internal revenue collector.

At Paris, Hon. J. C. Beckham "read a signed statement from Mr. R. F. Peake, of Shelbyville, in which Mr. Peake says that a short while after the Louisville convention ex-Gov. Brown told him (Peake) that he (Brown) would support the ticket nominated at Louisville, and that he would make speeches advocating its election as a whole."

Hon. W. B. Smith, of Richmond, says: The democrats of Madison county will all be in line on election day, and I predict the election of the entire State ticket by a decisive majority that will be the opening gun to serve notice upon the republican party of its overthrow in 1900. This is no time for any faithful democrat to hesitate, halt or falter, but let us all keep step to the time of the music.

Capt. Boyle O. Rodes, of Danville, who scratched Bryan in 1896, said to the Cincinnati Enquirer: "I know of but one democrat in Boyle county who will bolt Goebel or our State ticket, and the gold standard men are swinging back into line beautifully. The nomination of Judge R. J. Breckinridge for attorney general has touched our people deeply, and we know it was due to Senator Goebel. The response from our democrats will be enthusiastic and with an increased majority. We regard the election of the ticket as certain. Yes, all the Stone and Hardin men in our county are conducting themselves like true democrats."

"The Time-table Statesmen and Schedule politicians of the Holier-than-thou variety, in other words the Aggregation of Amalgamated Kickers, which the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company has called to meet in Lexington next week," is the way the Courier Journal designates the squealers and asks: "How are these Punch and Judy, half-horse and half-alligator, holier-than-thou, Louisville & Nashville political brakemen and moral conductors, how do they expect to help Bryan by electing the republican State ticket? That is what we want to know. And there are a number of gentlemen up a tree who want to know the same thing."

Gov. W. J. Stone, of Missouri, the vice chairman and acting chairman of the democratic National committee, and one of the best known men in the country, writes to National Committee-man Urey Woodson that "it is entirely clear to me that Kentucky democrats should lay aside mere personal consideration and strive to elect the ticket nominated at Louisville. The loss of Kentucky to the democrats at this time would be a serious blow to the party in the nation. Therefore I say that the democrats of Kentucky should put aside all personal differences for the time being and rally as one man to redeem the State and put it again safely in the democratic column."

Gov. Bradley refused to pardon the Frankfort coal dealers who were fined $500 each for alleged conspiracy to control the price of coal.

A hurricane struck Ponce, Porto Rico, causing the rivers to overflow. Two hundred lives were lost. The property loss amounts to over $500,000.

Carlisle suffered the worst fire in her history, six fine business houses being burned, including that of Perry Jefferson with 350,000 pounds of tobacco.

Commander St. John, of the war vessel Peacock, says: "Gen. Otis is a silly old fool, an old woman, utterly incompetent to manage the campaign which confronts him in the Philippines, and at least 5,000 brave and courageous fellows have been sacrificed by his utter incompetence."

Secretary of War Root declares that from now on the war in the Philippines would be pushed with all possible energy. By the end of the rainy season, he said, 50,000 American soldiers would be in the field, and that if these were not sufficient, more would be sent. All necessary arms and supplies will be sent at once.

Look out, Will Walton, for we are going to be able to talk to you over wire direct, today or tomorrow, and then we are at your service, except in your bad old politics.—Somerset Paragon. Thanks, Bro. Hansford, but if you are to converse with none here but men, who have the same politics as we, you will do precious little talking.

"THERE are no bolters in my section that I know of," said that true and tried democrat, Mr. O. J. Crow, of Turnersville, yesterday.

$1.25 TO CINCINNATI.—The L. & N. will give another cheap rate to Cincinnati Sunday. Only $1.25 for the round-trip. In the city 12 hours.

THE safe of Druggist J. L. Rose at Shelby City was cracked Monday night, but fortunately for Mr. Rose it contained nothing of great value to the rascals, who carried away the papers and threw them in a culvert.

"THE two Crab Orchard precincts are all right," said Mr. Will A. Brooks to an I. J. man. "A poll of them shows that only those so-called democrats, who are accustomed to bolt when things do not suit them, will scratch Goebel. The regulars are all in line."

WHO IS HE?—A dispatch says that A. J. Johnson, of Lincoln county, Ky., was arrested at Bates City, Mo., on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Walter Waddell, of the Lexington (Mo.) Savings Bank. The trouble arose on a land deal made through the bank's agents with Mr. Johnson.

A GOOD rain fell yesterday and this morning between 4 and 5 o'clock, a severe thunder storm accompanied by heavy rain, gave the earth a further wetting. It will prove the savior of the late corn, but much of the forward has no grains on its ears and is too far matured to have them now.

GILBERT MONDAY.—J. M. Alverson received a dispatch yesterday from Senator Blackburn, chairman of the campaign committee, to advise Congressman G. G. Gilbert to speak at Stanford next Monday at 1:30 p. m. Mr. Gilbert is doing yeoman service for the straight ticket and everybody should hear him give reasons for the faith that is in him.

IN FINE SHAPE.—"Judging from expressions in my rounds over the county, it is in fine shape for the democratic ticket," said Sheriff Sam M. Owens, a former strong Hardin man, in response to our interrogatory. "I do not know of a Hardin man who will not support it. A very few Stone men, who have heretofore voted straight, say they will not vote for Goebel, but I believe they will get all right by election day. The bolt seems to be confined principally to those who are given to bolting and voting any way. I believe Lincoln county is all right and that our ticket will poll the usual vote."

CASEY COURT.—"A big crowd was present at the opening of circuit court at Liberty Monday," said Mr. W. P. Tate, who was there, "and it was a right busy day." Mr. T. still has considerable business in Casey, notwithstanding it has been nearly 20 years since he sold goods there, and he never makes a visit to that county that he does not return with well-filled pockets. This time he got a good pair of mules and lots of money, but he would not say how much. The docket is not heavy this court and minor cases are being disposed of at a rapid rate, he tells us. The fair held last week was a success financially and a nice dividend will be declared. He was informed that a permanent organization would be effected and that fairs would be annually held in the future.

PICKETT.—His children here, Mrs. Wm. Severance, Miss Virginia Pickett and Mr. Hartwell Pickett, received a dispatch yesterday morning conveying the sad intelligence of the death of their father, Mr. James A. Pickett, at his home in Shelby county, and they, accompanied by Mrs. Lou Shanks, whose sister he married, took the first train to look once more upon the face, which to-morrow will be shut from them forever. The burial will occur at Shelbyville. His wife and seven other children besides those mentioned survive. For nearly two months he had been bed-ridden with gastritis, but late news from his bedside said he was slowly improving. Mr. Pickett was 58 years old and stood very high in the community in which he was a most useful citizen. Friends here sincerely sympathize with the family in their great loss.

FOR RENT.—My farm of 203 acres: well improved. Lies on Stanford and Crab Orchard pike 2 1/2 miles from Crab Orchard. Mrs. H. L. Abraham.*

Big crowds are attending the colored fair at Hustonville and the show of stock is good. Danville beat Stanford by four scores in the game of base ball there yesterday.

THE fellow who emptied a shot gun into the K. C. train at 2 A. M. Tuesday, barely missing the conductor and Mack Thomas, was arrested yesterday in the bushes near Mason's Gap by Sheriff S. M. Owens and Dink Farmer and brought to town. He was presented before Squire J. H. Raines, but no witnesses being on hand, the case was continued till next Tuesday. The dead wood seems to be on him as he was riding in a buggy with J. H. Alcorn when he fired the shot. His name is Joe Leisure.

A PETITION, numerous signed, and endorsed by P. M. James C. Florence and Judge Davison, has been forwarded to the postmaster general, asking that the star route from McKinney to Turnersville be extended to Stanford, in order that mail matter to and from the West End may be dispatched more promptly. It takes a letter 24 hours now to go to points in the county along the Cincinnati Southern and Hustonville and three days to get an answer. If the new route is established it will be possible to have communication with the West Enders the same day.

THE party given Tuesday night by Misses Maude and Claude Carter was very largely attended by the younger set, who tell us that it was elegant and enjoyable in every particular. It is said that 250 invitations were sent out, the larger number accepting and attending. The lawn was brilliantly illuminated and the house gleamed with myriads of lights. Mrs. P. W. Carter saw to the refreshments and her skill and taste were again shown. The young ladies acquitted themselves handsomely and filled every heart with gratitude for the memorable entertainment.

MR. D. W. VANDEVEER, who is a bolter both by faith and practice, has issued a call for a bolters' convention here county court day to "protest against the Louisville Police convention and the destruction of the democratic party by Goebellism" and name delegates to the convention at Lexington. There is little or no disaffection here among true democrats. A few, who change their politics as often as they do their shirts, are among the goody goody, who can not vote for Goebel "because he is a bad man and secured his nomination by fraud," but the regulars are in line and enthusiastic for the ticket from top to bottom. No man with the slightest hope for a political future will join in the squealers movement, and Mr. Vandever was doubtless put forward because he is four score and can expect nothing further in life.

ANOTHER RAILROAD.—The commercial club was called to meet Tuesday to consider a proposition from Mr. C. H. Williams, of Georgetown, who said he was backed by a company that will build the railroad from Rowland to the connecting point with Nashville, using the line surveyed several years ago by Mr. Zimmerman, who was then at the head of the movement to construct the Chesapeake & Nashville from here, through Casey, Adair, &c., to Gallatin, Tenn. The lower end was built as far as Scottsville, but the scheme for this end fell through. Mr. Williams proposed that if our people would give the right-of-way and $10,000, he would insure the immediate building of the road to McKinney, thereby giving us an independent connection with the Queen & Crescent and a competing line. Mr. Williams claimed to be backed by the Consolidated Public Works & Engineers' Construction Co., of Philadelphia, and he was subjected to a rigid cross examination by President Saunders, who wanted to be sure that he was all right. Afterwards Mr. Saunders wrote to the Farmers Bank at Georgetown to ascertain the standing of Mr. Williams and received a most favorable reply, stating that he was well backed and had carried through several large enterprises. The road would be a great one for Stanford and a big portion of the county and if a company will give good guarantee that it will be built, there ought to be no trouble in raising the $10,000 and money for that portion of the right-of-way which could not be gotten otherwise. The club should keep in close touch with Mr. Williams and do all in its power to secure the building of the road.

BE sure to hear Congressman Gilbert's speech here Monday.

STUBBLE PLOWS.—Vulcan and Gibbs' Imperial Steel Beam plows at B. K. Wearen & Son's.*

GEO. FLORENCE hurt his hand in the first inning with the club at McKinney yesterday and the game was declared off.

If you are in arrears to this paper you are not getting the benefit of the $1 rate, but must pony up $2 a year, so. If you are a good financier you will come to time at once.

D. R. W.—Deputies C. B. Owens and W. L. Wood went out to Renetown Wednesday night and arrested three coons, Jim Mukes, Jim Burdett and Zack Hays, charged with disturbing religious worship, and lodged them in jail for trial today.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.—Ed Shelton, colored, gave himself up to Deputy Sheriff Logan Wood this morning, saying that he had shot Charlie Cohen, near Keene and that he broke out of jail at Nicholasville Wednesday. Cohen, he says, is not dangerously hurt.

JUNCTION CITY.—Mr. M. V. Owens, who has made money running the old Gore House, is putting in a big saw mill near town and will begin operations in a few days. Dr. H. S. Chase, who has been very low with blood poison, is improving. It was thought for a while that his left hand would have to be amputated. J. T. Cecil has bought Will Tuttle's livery stable and is doing a good business with it. A nice crowd is at Linnietta, where Manager Shelby is making it pleasant for them.

THE accident which caused the passenger trains on the Q. & C., to run by here for several days, note of which was made in our last, was caused by the explosion of a car of naphtha in the tunnel at Cumberland River, as a South-bound freight train was passing through it. Another car of naphtha soon exploded and the wreckage catching fire, 22 cars were destroyed. Strange to say, the crew got out without serious injury. The two engines and 22 cars got out safely. One tramp was found mangled and two sons of Prof. Spencer were killed. Houses in Burnside, a distance of a mile, were all wrecked and the citizens badly scared. The Seven Gables Hotel was badly injured, windows and plastering being destroyed. A fire engine was sent from Lexington to help put out the fire, which raged in the tunnel for three days.

THE Q. & C. trains, passenger and fast freights, are still running by here, and those who have been to the tunnel say it will be several days yet before it is cleared.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

John Mason, a widower with eight children, was married at Vanceburg to Miss Louise Gillman, sweet 16.

Alex Pullins, 20, and Miss Cynthia Baugh, 21, were married at J. D. Long's Wednesday.

At Canton, O., a woman, who had a quarrel with her husband, killed him, their little daughter and herself.

Harvey Couch, aged 21, and Miss Mary Farmer Coomer, 13, were married at General Griffin Coomer's yesterday.

George Craig made an unsuccessful attempt to kill himself at Morehead because his sweetheart's father objected to his attentions to her.

Ralph Marshall shot and fatally wounded Lum Harrison, of Tompkinsville, because the latter charged that Marshall was unkind to his wife.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

The next Kentucky Christian missionary convention will be held at Carlisle.

Elds. J. G. Livingston and A. J. Daughertee closed their meeting at Pine Grove with 28 additions.

Rev. F. W. Allen delivered an address at the Christian Missionary Convention at Shelbyville, which was largely attended.

The meetings at the Methodist church by Evangelist D. B. Strouse will likely close Sunday night. They have resulted in many confessions and doing great good.

Mormon elders have been treated roughly at various points in Kentucky, President Rich, of the Mormon mission, has appealed to Gov. Bradley for protection for his followers.

Elder J. M. Rash closed a meeting of 10 nights at Witherspoon Chapel Thursday with 27 additions. Twenty-two were baptized in Stoner, near Thatcher's Mill.—Winchester Democrat.

Sid. Williams: "We have just closed a meeting at Farmers, Texas, with 122 additions. Raised nearly $10,000 for a new house. A. J. Harris is doing some splendid work in meetings."—Baptist Argus.

A. Forman, the Villa Ridge Inn man, who assaulted Rev. Forest, was arrested and held to bond of $1,000. He beat the preacher into insensibility because he went to the kitchen and got his breakfast after the dining room had closed.
